

Call for Proposals from Muralists

Visit Macon is calling muralists to submit proposals for a public mural project. One artist will be selected to produce a mural on the back exterior wall of the Visitors Center. The painting will display uplifting and positive imagery celebrating Macon's cultural assets and should convey Visit Macon's messaging "Where Soul Lives". It must also include the words "Welcome" and "Macon".

All applications will be reviewed by a jury of an art advisory committee that represents a cross section of Art Professionals from Macon including administrators, educators and artists.
